Principal’s Message:

Happy Friday! This week was a busy one with the CAASPP Readiness Assessment for Mathematics. A big shout out to all teachers and students for working hard to complete these three days of testing to the best of our ability. A big thank you to our Counseling Department as well for managing and scheduling meaningful presenters for our seniors. Finally, a big thank you to our Instructional Coaches for their relentless efforts in making the testing go smooth. Overall, a great week all around.

We will now focus on analyzing the test results to determine next steps and to identify students for additional interventions.

Looking forward to a great Homecoming Week 2017. Please make sure to dress up and support the festivities.

DSH Counselor, Ms. Emilia Villagomez runs our recycling efforts at Drosi High School. The monies raised go towards scholarships for seniors. A big shout out to our Leo Club Members for assisting and contributing towards these efforts.
